Management change in Electrolux Professional Group

Dave Herring, President Business Area Food Americas, has expressed his wish to retire. He will stay until a successor has been found.

Dave Herring has been with Electrolux Professional Group since the acquisition of Unified Brands in 2021. A recruitment process to find his successor has been initiated.

“I would like to thank Dave Herring for his valuable contribution to Electrolux Professional Group. He played an instrumental role in the integration of Unified Brands into Electrolux Professional making the Group a significantly larger player in the US. I would like to express our sincere appreciation for his dedication and hard work. I am also happy that he has agreed to stay until a successor has been found”, says Alberto Zanata, President and CEO, Electrolux Professional Group.
